PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 23 You shall participate in the home confinement program for 6 months days in lieu of 6 months confinement at the Residential Release Center. You shall abide by all the requirements of the program, which will include electronic monitoring or other location verification system. You shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as pre-approved by the supervising probation officer.

CAUSE

Ms. Reed was originally sentenced to serve 6 months community corrections center [now known as a Residential Release Center (RRC)] at the Franklin County Jail Work Release Program. Soon after the defendant was sentenced, the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) discontinued placing inmates with Franklin County due to contractual issues. This officer has requested reconsideration from the BOP with no success and the only RRC functioning in the Eastern District of Washington is located in Spokane, WA. This officer believes it was the Court's intent that Ms. Reed remain close to her family and in her home community to allow her to seek employment and remain with her established substance abuse treatment provider. Ms. Reed has now obtained employment and continues to attend substance abuse treatment. It is requested Ms. Reed be allowed to complete her RRC obligation through home confinement with electronic monitoring in order to maintain a continuity of treatment, employment and supervision. A signed waiver of hearing to modify conditions without hearing form is provided for the Court's consideration.
